

Events coming up in New Jersey to assist consumers with questions regarding the change in broadcast signals – See listing below:

The Federal Communications Commission is conducting free walk-in clinics in New Jersey at several locations including libraries, electronic centers, senior citizen centers and outdoor fairs to explain how to set-up a Digital TV converter box for your analog television. Additional presentations may be available until June 30th. For a complete listing and additional DTV information visit www.nj.gov/bpu.

Name	Date	Time	Address
Middlesex Public Library	6/6/2009	11:00 AM -12:00 PM	1300 Mountain Ave, Middlesex NJ, 08846
Hoboken Health Fair	6/6/2009	12:00 PM – 3:00 PM	Outdoor Health Fair at ball park at 400 Jackson Street – Mama Johnson Ball Field – 4 th Annual Health Fair sponsored by the Hoboken Housing Authority. Contact: Evelyn Mercado 201-876-2935
DTV Exhibit - Wildwood, NJ	6/6/2009	2:00 PM - 6:00 PM ET	3600 Boardwalk, Wildwood NJ, 08260
DTV Presentation and Exhibit	6/8/2009	6:00 PM - 8:00 PM ET	Mercer County Hispanic Association, 18 East 6th Avenue, Hamilton NJ, 08619
Ewing Library Branch of Mercer County Library System	6/9/2009	10:00 AM-12:00 PM	61 Scotch Road, Ewing, 08628
Lawrenceville Branch of the Mercer County Library System	6/9/2009	2:00 PM – 4:00 PM	2751 Brunswick Pike, Lawrenceville, NJ 08648
DTV Clinic	6/11/2009	4:00 PM - 8:00 PM ET	Spanish Community Center, 3900 Ventnor Avenue, Atlantic City NJ, 08401